In these workshops, teens in grades 6-12 who like to write will get valuable advice on critiquing, editing, and polishing their stories by two popular YA authors, Victoria Hanley and Todd Mitchell. Each teen should bring one or two pages of his or her original written pieces (short stories, book chapters, or other brief writing samples) to the workshops. Teens are encouraged to attend both sessions (which is recommended for optimal learning) and must register for each individual session. To sign up, and for more information, call 221-6380 or 204-8206, or stop by the Adult Information Desk at either the Main Library or Harmony Library.

Victoria Hanley is the author of Violet Wings, Seize the Story: a Handbook for Teens Who like to Write, Wild Ink: How to Write Fiction for Young Adults, The Seer and the Sword, The Healer's Keep, and The Light of the Oracle.

Todd Mitchell is the author of The Traitor King plus the forthcoming The Secret to Lying, and he teaches creative writing and literature at Colorado State University.
